PLAY AND RISK

Conference 2010

A free conference for anyone interested in play including PCSOs, teachers, community wardens, teaching and learning support assistants, police officers, landscape architects and chairs and members of neighbourhood forums.

The day will cover how to support play, risky and challenging play and designing play spaces. The conference will also be an opportunity for practitioners to share thoughts and ideas about the content of the new Portsmouth Play Strategy.

Speakers include:

- Stuart Lester – renowned author and lecturer in playwork
- Michael Follett – play advisor at South Gloucestershire Council
- Adam White – award winning chartered landscape architect for play spaces
- Lynette Robertson – regional programme manager for Play England

Monday 29 March

Registration from 9am
for 9.30am start.

Close at 4pm.

Venue

Holiday Inn,
Portsmouth

The conference is free but there are only 100 spaces available. Limited free parking at hotel but permits for street parking available from reception.
